Transition Information for Prison Sentences Program

If you are preparing for sentencing, self-surrender, or incarceration, you may have many questions. Pretrial Services is here to answer any questions you may have such as:

- What is the purpose of a presentence report?
- Where am I going and what's my new address?
- What can I bring with me?

All of these questions and many more can be answered at the TIPS program. Feel free to bring your family members to this orientation as they may have questions as well. TIPS is designed to reduce anxiety, and provide you with information. It's very important that you have an understanding about your prison sentence, so let us educate you at our next orientation.
